

NRI s joining politics

Rasheed Khan

www.friends4india.net

info@friends4india.net

NRI - Global

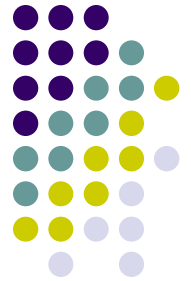

NRIs across the world constitute between 30 and 40 millions

“The Sun never sets on the empire of Indian mind, some children of mother India are always working whenever the Sun is shining on the planet”.

- Dr A.P.J Abdul Kalam

NRI - UK

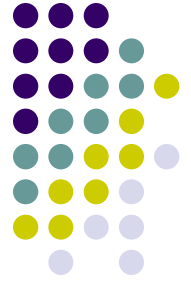

- According to the April 2001 UK National Census there are 1,051,800 people of Indian origin in the UK.
- 2005 estimates state that 2.41% of England's population as being Indian.
- The Indian emigrant community in the United Kingdom is now in its third generation. NRIs have been remarkably successful and moved from their being bus-conductors, waiters, and small shopkeepers to their being doctors, lawyers, accountants and successful businesspeople.

NRI - AP

- Andhra Pradesh enjoys the status of having the second largest number of NRIs in the world.
- Andhra Pradesh receives highest amount of money remitted by NRIs.
- FDI inflow to Andhra Pradesh between 2002-2006 is $1000 millions and it ranks 5th in FDI recipients in India.

NRI - Power

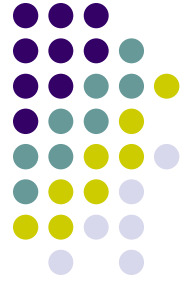

An estimated 5.7 million Indian workers abroad sent money home to the tune of $27 billion in 2007 ahead of China's $25 billion to make India the top receiver of foreign remittances.

Annual contribution by way of remittances by the non-resident Indians (NRIs) is about 3% of Indian GDP now.

- Reserve Bank of India Governor

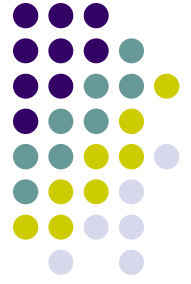

NRI - Politics

Should the contribution of NRIs to the mother land be restricted to sending money, charity or philanthropy ?

How about contributing time and knowledge into socio-political issues of AP ?

NRI - Politics

Our friends are going extra miles towards contributing to mother land – and decided to join mainstream politics...

I Welcome our Speakers

Mr. Pavan Kumar Badhakal
and
Mr. Srisail Reddy Panjugala

(Speakers' profiles are available at <http://www.friends4india.net/profiles.htm>)